something about me

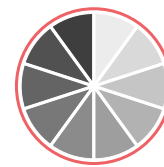

Nationality Italian
Date of Birth March 12, 1988

I am a person with good communication and interpersonal skills, sociable and honest. I like working in a team, but I'm also able to manage the work in complete autonomy. I think I have a good organization which I have developed and well improved day by day at the workplace. I have been working full time for over 10 years as a Graphic Designer and Photographer at the advertising department of a large company operating in the mechanical engineering field. Also, I have many collaborations with other companies dealing on creative field. I'm always ready for new challenges for reaching new targets.
